TUESDAY, AUGUST 3, 1880.

Worth Remembering. George Washington first to the White House came, and next on the list is John Adams name; Tom Jefferson then tilled the honored place; the name of James Madison next we trace. The fifth in succession was James Monroe, and John Quincy Adams the next below. Then Andrew Jackson was placed in the chair. and next we find Martin Van Buren there. Then William H Harrison's name we meet, whose death gave John Tyler the coveted seat Then James K Polk was the nations choice; next for Zachary Taylor she gave her voice, whose premature death brought in Mill ard Fillmore; and next Franklin Pierce the distinction wore The fifteenth was James Buchanan, they sav, who for Abraham Lincoln prepared the way whose martyrdom gave Andrew Johnson a chance, and the eighteenth bas Ulysses S Grant's. By various means and devious ways the nineteenth now is

The tas ing of Dr. Tanner revives to memory the fasting of Thomas Ford, aged twenty-three years, in Paris, Washington County, Pa, in the year 1840. . He lived thirty-nine days without food or water, being unable to swallow either. On the evening of the thirty-ninth day be took bis sister's hand in his and remarked that she would not have to watch with him much lon-When she inquired whether be felt worse; he answered that he felt no worse than be had for several days past, but that no man had ever fasted forty days but our Savior, and no man ever would. He died that evening, leaving a request that there he a post mortem held for the benefit of science, as he did not want others to suffer as he had done. The examination was made, and the physicians found the entrance to the stomach closed up completely by a fungous growth, and that it would have been impossible to relieve him by an operation.

It is bard to believe that that noisy boy, whose hands are always on the most intimate terms with all manner of grime and dirt; whose hair is never combed, save on compulsion; whose clothes sample everything that it comes near, till "it is a sight to behold;" whose hooting and yelling are constant reminders of aboriginal memoirs, and whose whistling is an aggregation of three steam bands and a brace of locomotives ticular in the fit of his coat, the shade of his kids and the immaculate whiteness of his shirt front, so excruciatingly clean of person and so eminently proper in word, act and deed. But he will be. The answer to this enigma is, calico. - Boston

"Why, I am surprised at thee. I could let thee have it for seventy-five cents.— And how much for this?" "Twe dollars."

"Why, that was unreasonable. I uld let thee have it for $1 50. Why will thee go away trading with strangers and the world's people, Mary?" "I don't know what thee is talking shout friend John. But I did buy all these things at thy store, and if thee says the truth thee must owe me consid-

If You are Sick, Read the Kinney Wort advertisement in another column, and it will explain to you the rational method of getting well -Kidney Wort will save you more doctor's bills than any other medicine known. Acting with specific energy on the Kidneys and Liver, it cures the worst diseases caused by their derangement.—
Use it at once.

The young man whose duty is to take the census of the Indians does not find life that scene of bliss that might be possible under different circumstances. When he calls on the Indian family and draws his chromo-portfolio on them they think be wants to draft them into the army or something and instantly break for the bills as though the dickens was after them. The only way he can ever make this a success is to form himself into a this a success is to form himself into a hollow square, surround every Indian be SIMMONS Sufferers, Victims of rees, and take his census right away from him before he knows what is up.

How to Get Well. Thousands of persons are constantly troubled with a combination of diseases. Diseased Kidneys and contive bowels are their tormentors. They should know that Kidney-Wort acts on these For DYSPEPSIA, CONSTIPATION Jaundle organs at the same time, causing them Billions attacks, Sick Headache, Colic, D. to throw off the poisons that have clog-pression of Spirits, Sous STONACH, Hear ged them, and so renewing the whole Burn, &c., man. Hundreds testify to this.

"Did you break that window, boy?" ranted not to contain a single particle of the fleeing urchin. "Yes, sir." "What but is d'ye mean, then, by iunning off in this manner?" "Piesse, sir, I was running home to get the money. I was 'fraid if I didn't run quick I might forget it." And with that he skipped around the corner. He doubtless found his way home but he probably lost his way comd're mean, then, by running off in this manner?" "Please, sir, I was running home, but be probably lost his way coming back.
